"Books, these miraculous memories of high thoughts and golden moods; those magical shells, tremulous with the secrets of the ocean of life;...those honeycombs of dreams; those orchids of knowledge; those stillbeating hearts of noble dead;...prisms of beauty; urns stored with all the sweet of all summers of time; immortal nightingales that sing forever to the rose of life.

Foreword

LIFE, college life, forms indelible chapters in the unfolding plot of our four years' journey in Learning to Live and Living to Learn.

Memories, golden, of Precious hours of living with great
minds in books,
Recreating hours in the fine arts,
Relaxing hours in building towers of
strength and fortitude,
Priceless hours in forming friendships and sharing experiences,

Laborious hours in purposeful sacrificing for a worthy goal, Satisfying hours of realization of
rewards for effort,
Gratifying hours for endless love
and sacrifice on the part of those who are concerned--

.....Golden memories of all these, unfolded in the giant volume of our lives,
help us to make our philosophy of life
become more than just a memory.

Dedication

Miss Angelika Reckendorf

It only takes a simple paint brush, a few black and gold colors, imagination.

Blended with Christian ideals, friendly cooperation, well-balanced personality, and a vast store-house of experience to produce one of the greatest masterpieces of Embry-Riddle State College.

To you, our beloved illustrator, we, the Senior Class, dedicate this the 1956 INDIANHEAD.

MISS ANGELIKA RECKENDORF

May this, your GOLDFEN BOOK OF MEMORIES, be an inspiration for further endeavors.

President

Walter J. Gale

President's Message

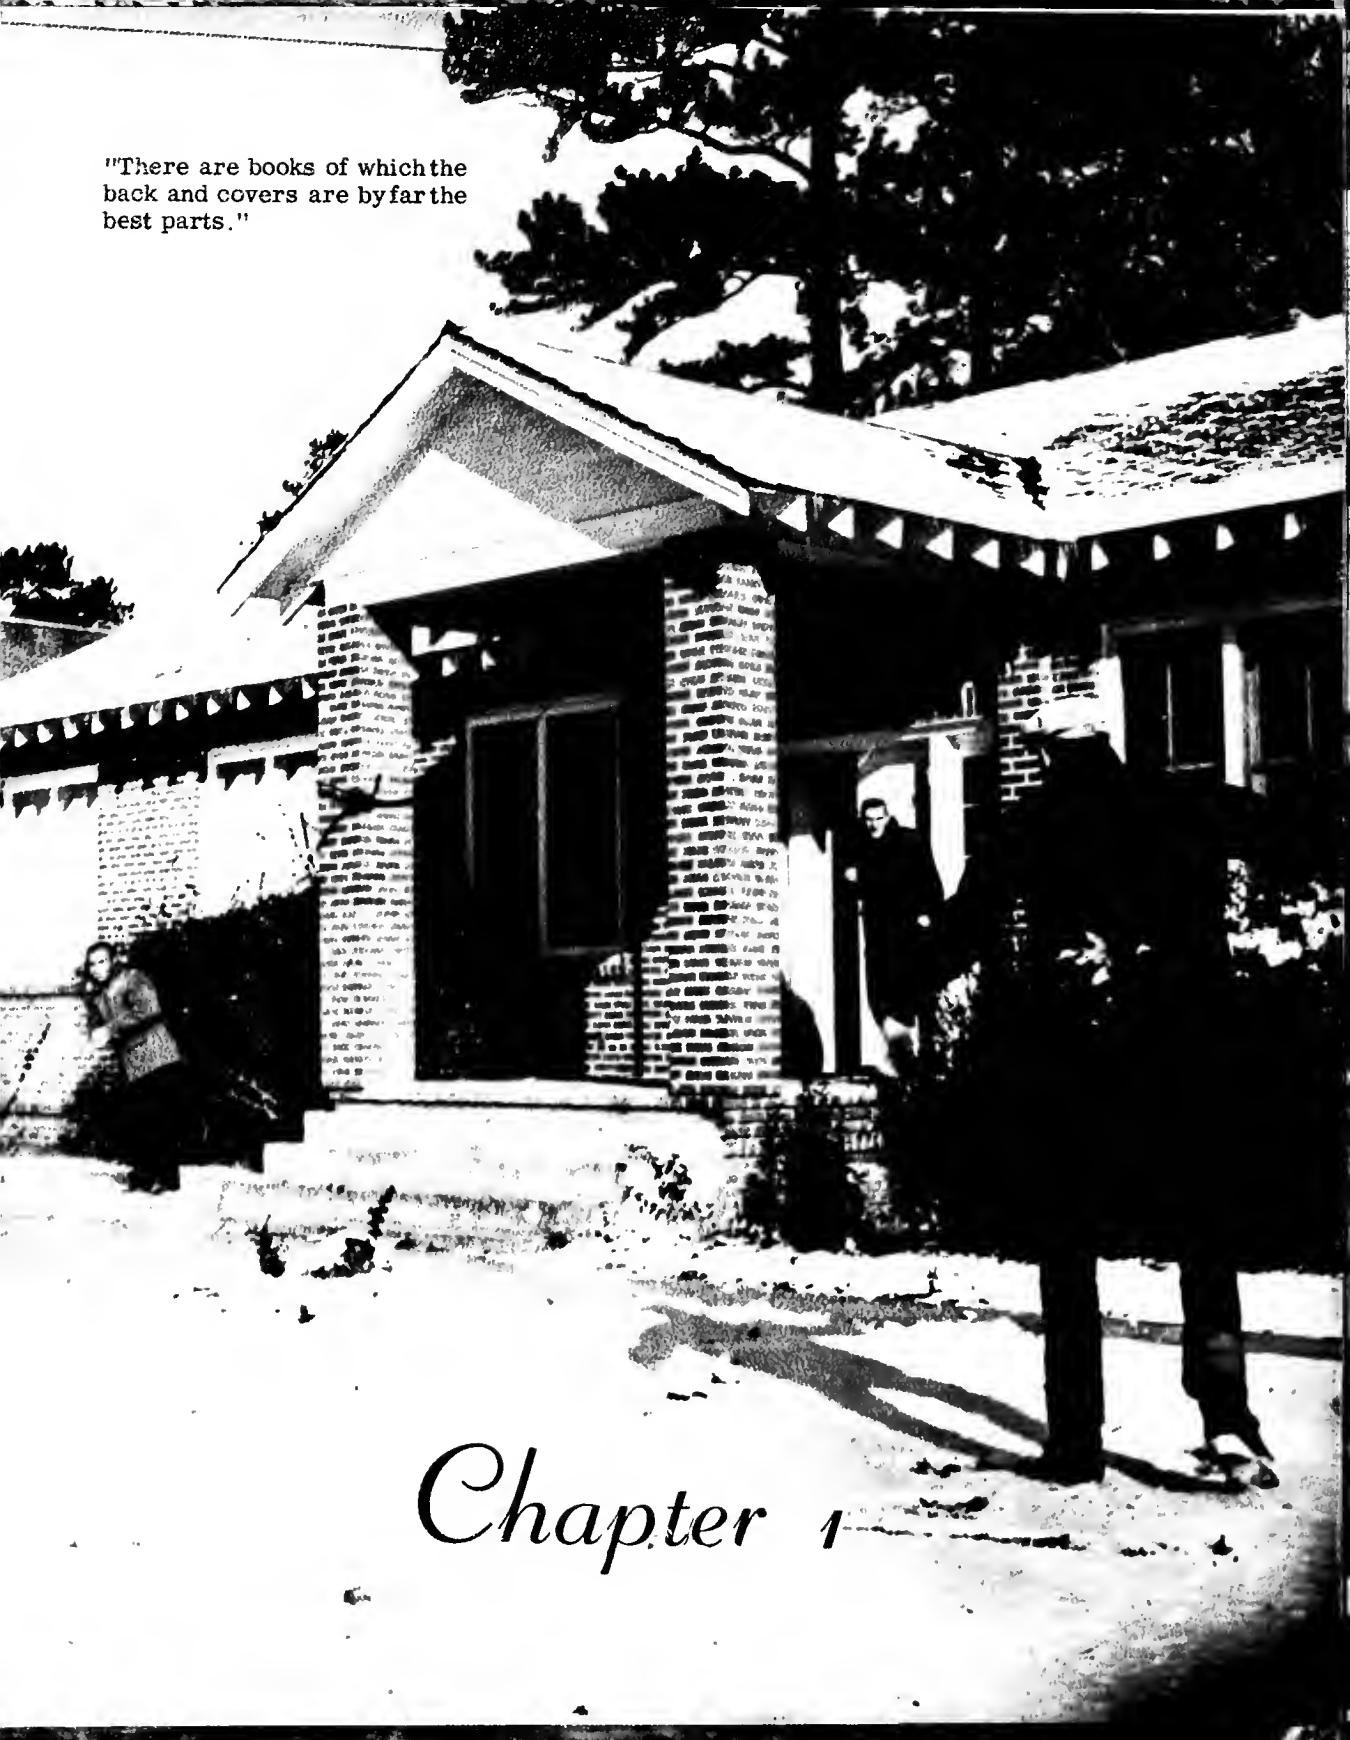

A Golden Book of Memories should provide innumerable pleasures of reverie and reminiscence. That is as it should be.

However, I charge you to concentrate on the future, while dwelling only fleetingly on the past. Too frequently man has stumbled on the path of progress while looking backward. Reflection on the past has a place in life when it is a sincere attempt to evaluate progress or to interpret the future; otherwise, however pleasant, it is time ill-spent.

Throughout the coming years you will spend moments of leisure with this Golden Book of Memories. May you enjoy the reminiscence. Then, returning quickly to reality, may you profit again and again from those experiences pictured here. Live, work, and play purposefully each day, so that your Golden Years will be satisfying and rewarding. Only then will you warrant the unlimited pleasures of dreams and wishes; only then can you afford the extravagances of complete absorption with your Golden Book of Memories.

"There are books of which the back and covers are by far the best parts."

Chapter 1

Old Main

"Men do not understand books until they have had a certain amount of life, or at any rate no man understands a deep book, until he has seen and lived at least part of its contents."

"Books that you may carry to the fire and hold readily in your hand, are the most useful after all."

"For books are more than books,
they are the Life,
The very heart and core
of ages past.
The reason why men Lived
and worked and died,
The essence and quintessence
of their Lives."

"I have ever gained the most profit, and the most pleasure also, from the books which have made me think the most; and, when the difficulties have once been overcome, these are the books which have struck the deepest root, not only in memory and understanding, but likewise in my affections."

FAITH

By Mary Whalen Biddle

Faith is a mirror, reflecting light
The radiance of the sun,
More than reason can discern,
It tells the world what is true.

Reason, the guide of man,
To trust in God exceeds my power,
Uniting faith and reason we may know
Truth and beauty, and the way.

INVITATION

By Mary Jane Locklear

When autumn is through painting gold on her leaves,
She throws down her
calling cards of brown...
The winter invites us to tables of white...
Where pixies are dining in pale moonlight.

AUTUMN

by Lucille Thompson

Autumn is shaking her tambourine--
Brown leaves are falling which once were green;
And soon our earth will dress in white...
With jewels that sparkle like bright starlight!

Hail to P.S.C.!

The sweetest lives are those to duty wed,
Whose deeds, both great and small,
Are close-knit strands of an unbroken thread,
Where love enables all.
The world may sound no trumpet, ring no bells;
The book of life the shining record tells.

Hail To P. S. C.

Reba M. Lowry, 1954

Handwritten musical score for the first verse of "Hail To P. S. C." featuring two staves. The top staff is in G major and the bottom staff is in C major. The lyrics are written below the notes.

Where Caro- Li- nad's Loft- y Pine trees Pierce the South- ern blue, Ira Pate Lowry, 1954.

Handwritten musical score for the second verse of "Hail To P. S. C." featuring two staves. The top staff is in G major and the bottom staff is in C major. The lyrics are written below the notes.

Proud- Ly stands our AL- ma Ma- ter Cou- rd- geous, strong and true;

Handwritten musical score for the third verse of "Hail To P. S. C." featuring two staves. The top staff is in G major and the bottom staff is in C major. The lyrics are written below the notes.

Black and gold float on for- ev- er, Sym- bol of Loy- al ty,- Handwritten musical score for the fourth verse of "Hail To P. S. C." featuring two staves. The top staff is in G major and the bottom staff is in C major. The lyrics are written below the notes.

Pem- broke State, our AL- ma Ma- ter, Hail to P. S. C!

2. Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
 Guardian of our youth
 Ever lead thy children onward
 Into light and truth;
 Unborn youth will take our places
 To praise thee endlessly,
 Pembroke State, our Alma Mater,
 Hail to P. S. C. :

3. 'Neath thy ever verdant pine trees
 We rally to thy call,
 Ever loyal sons and daughters-
 Ambassadors, we all-
 Bound by ties of love and service
 Friendship and loyalty,
 Pembroke State, our Alma Mater,
 Hail to P. S. C. :

4. Raise the chorus, blend the voices,
 Let the echoes ring
 To our loving foster parent
 Loudly praises sing;
 Swell the chorus 'till it reaches
 On through eternity
 Pembroke State, our Alma Mater,
 Hail to P. S. C. !

AND COLLEGES

Who's Who

Five seniors were chosen by the P. S. C. Student Council and faculty members and by the editors of WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES to appear in the 1957-58 edition of WHO'S WHO. This annual publication lists student leaders in educational institutions throughout the nation. Criteria for selection of a student are: excellence in scholarship, leadership, participation in extracurricular and academic activities, citizenship, service to the school, and promise of future usefulness to business and society.
